Letters ✕ Supt & P% d 4-7-1903 from the Dfl of Edn

Subject Suspension of the supdt (Mr M V Srinivasangar) of the Govt Industrial school at Mysore and the appointment of M P Ramachandra Rao in his place on Rs 70 a month

The accounts of the Industrial School at Mysore were not being kept in a satisfactory manner & the supdt of the School the supdt (Mr M V Srinivasangar) was also the Honorary secretary of the school)

For the better management of the school, Mr Nagavakar was during the last year appointed Honorary secretary

Mr Bhabha reported in his letter ✕ 5954/201 dated the 13th January 1903 ~~of~~ on the conduct of the supdt to the effect that the supdt replied to no letters of his calling for information regarding the accounts etc of the school

As the accounts were being kept in a very unsat unsatisfactory manner, the services of a D P W accountant were lent to the School to bring ~~the~~ them up to date and the supdt was also relieved of the routine duties to enable him ask the help of the D P W accountant to furnish the accounts ~~before~~ by the end of June 03

Sl No 10 D

The Dfl was also authorized to place the supdt under suspension if he did not furnish the information required of him (vide Docket No 11539/Ed c 496 d 9th Feb 1903)

Sl No 7 E

B The present letter (90/6) d 4th July 1903 from the Dfl does not say anything about the accounts of the School — whether they have been brought up to date and of not how long it would still take to do so — It simply states that according to a resolution of the Committee of the School, the supdt has been placed under suspension by the Insp-Genl until further orders

A In his letter No 89/5 dated also the 4th July 1903; the Dfl requests sanction to the appointment of Mr P Ramachandra Rao, M E as instructor of the Technical classes

place of the present supdt

of the Industrial School, on Rs 70 a month to be met from the pay of the supdt

The qualifications and other details regarding Ramachandra Rao have not been given ~~of course the~~ the committee have recommended his appointment
